

Angelo Licini

Graduate of Hasbrouck Heights High School currently studying as a junior in Design and Creative Technology at The College of New Jersey, I bring a diverse background in sales, leadership, and experience across food, factory, and retail industries. Proficient in HTML, CSS, and design tools like Photoshop, Illustrator, and Figma, I've led multiple successful sales trips for the Commencement Group. My skill set also includes social media management, and I actively engage in philanthropy initiatives, contributing to meaningful causes. Excited to contribute my multifaceted skills to dynamic projects and teams.
